
Title: Empath Abbey

Author:

Deep within the woods is the hallowed Empath Abbey, home to diligent monks and makers of the best wine in the land.

The monks of the Abbey
are well known for study involving the appreciation and
production of art,
as well as for their
wines, paintings, sculpting, poetry, and music.

The Yew woods surrounding the Abbey is rife with Ettins, Orcs, Dire Wolves and Giant Spiders. Woe to any who imbide the wine of the monks and then be foolish enough to venture into the dark woods.
